

FAQ's

Why choose Advantage Communications for your Training needs?

Practicality : Our training is based on industry expertise, which delegates will find easier to follow and more credible. There is a strong emphasis on participation from delegates which increases learning and reduces boredom

· Flexibility : Training can be carried out in house or externally, one on one or in groups. We offer training that meets your objectives, not ours.

· Competitive : Our services are competitively priced, allowing companies of all sizes the opportunity of using our services.

· Difference : Our training is based on a non lecture textbook style, with no frills or cliches.

What does it cost for a day's training?

Training costs vary all according to length of contract, numbers of participants and location of training. However, an initial consultation to discuss your training needs is free of charge.

What if I am not happy with the training provided by Advantage Communications ?

We are proud of the fact that to date, all clients have been very satisfied with the training provided. However, if for some reason anyone is not happy with the service, Advantage Communications offer a 100% refund on all fees paid as a guarantee of our services.

I can't really afford to close down for a day to give my staff training

We do facilitate companies, for whatever reason find themselves in this position. What we found to be acceptable is for to offer training in the evenings or at weekends to facilitate this.

As an individual, where can I attend a training course?

Advantage Communications run training courses all around the country making it more accessible to people not living near a major city.

What do I take away after the training?

All participants receive comprehensive notes for to review on the subject that they covered.